

Symphony Show Description:

The Symphony Tribute to the Music of John Denver

The music of the late John Denver is like an old friend, outlasting trends and standing the test of time. Join the (name) symphony and acclaimed performer Jim Curry for this tribute to the music of one of the most beloved singer/songwriters ever to grace the stage.

John Denver is one of America's top pop artists of the 20th century. His music still resonates today and his numerous multi-platinum hits are remembered and loved by multiple generations. Together with Jim Curry and the award winning arrangements of Lee Holdridge, the symphony becomes as much of a performer as the singer presenting the music.

Tribute artist Jim Curry, who's voice was heard in the CBS-TV movie Take Me Home: The John Denver Story, stands alone as a professional entertainer. With thousands of performances he has emerged as the top and most experienced performer of John Denver's music. Jim's work with great symphonies across the US and at venues such as The Palladium in Carmel, Indiana; the Verizon Wireless Amphitheater in Orange County, California; and at Red Rocks Amphitheater in Colorado, have set him apart. With his easy onstage manner, incredible voice, Jim presents a heartfelt and moving concert.

Jim will be performing with (name) symphony, using the original orchestrations written for John Denver by Grammy award winning composer Lee Holdridge. Jim's uncanny ability to mirror John's voice and clean-cut look takes you back to the time when "Rocky Mountain High" "Sunshine" "Calypso" and "Annie's Song" topped the charts, and his popular music had the heartfelt message of caring for the earth and caring for each other.
